

Alain Lefebvre is a former French diplomat, political coach, and international consultant. Mr. Lefebvre's latest book Macron Unveiled: The Prototype for a New Generation of World Leaders debuts March 3, 2022. It is written in English for US audiences and is not a translation. Alain will talk about the book as part of an "In Discussion With" presentation and speak generally about French history, culture and politics with a neutral, fact-based approach.

About the book:

Macron Unveiled examines Macron's first four years as France's president, scrutinizing Macron's personality, his way of solving problems, his sources of inspiration, his mistakes, his difficulties, as well as the impact he may already have had in his country, in Europe, and the world. New leaders with a modern approach to politics are quickly emerging, and despite having limited political experience, they are facing the challenges of today head on.

As the world has to face collective challenges and new threats, there is a growing interest in world affairs what leadership and the political landscape will look like tomorrow.

As a former French Diplomat, psychologist, and international political consultant, Alain Lefebvre is uniquely positioned to explain the French and European perspective to U.S. and international audiences. He brings careful analysis and historical context to Macron's time in office and presents the information in a way that will help readers gain a better understanding of who Macron is as a man, a leader, and a prototype for the next generation of political leaders.
